

Samuel May Jr, Esq.

21 Cornhill.

Boston.

Dear Mr May,

Henry seems well enough at present, to go on Wed. and he will be most happy to take your parcel. My brother will take it when he gives you this or if he should not see you, will leave

word at the office
at what time, today,
he will call for it.

I know you will be glad to hear that our party
sailed on Wed. in good health & spirits.

Anne & Lucien, who returned from N.Y.

yesterday; went down with them
below Sandy Hook,
and saw them go
off in gallant style,
with all sails set,
at the rate of eight knots an hour. They will probably have a pleasant & we hope
a short passage.

I hope you will be at our Convention & that we shall see
as much of you as possible. We are prevented from being

you to stay with us
which would be a great pleasure to us, by crowded state of our house. My brother
his wife & baby & the
are with us & Henry
in a state of deep convalescence, which requires a great deal of room.

The accompanying letter to W. P. Anne & you or Mr Walcott to the kindness to send his other letters are sent with the kindest regards Mrs May & yourself, I am Yours truly
Mrs Anna M. M.
